DO YOU REMEMBER?

FRESHMAN YEAR

That first day we entered senior high — our chests puffed out — our noses high, but soon lowered by the sophisticated seniors.

Our first class meeting when we elected Ronnie Heywood as president, Mary McQuesten as vice-president, Betty Magiera, secretary, and Tom Rice, Treasurer. The Frosh Party — we didn't have.

The huge Freshman class that dwindled by the end of the year.

The first meeting with our new adviser, Miss Benotti. The unchanged slate of class officers.

Our first social, Fall Frolic. Pixie decorations.

The smooth class banners with our class colors, maroon and white.

The social committee's high hopes.

Skating Party

Hay ride

Class paper

The record we broke by having two sophomore parties, the second being in March. Didn't the curtain look pretty with all those spring flowers?

JUNIOR YEAR

We made two changes in our class officers. Bill Harrigan, treasurer; Amy Lango, vice-president.

Do you EVER remember having $178 in our treasury!

The grand time everyone had at the Mardi Gras, which was a big success.

May 19th — the junior prom with Dave Cornfoot as general chairman.

Your date — that superb orchestra of Ray Sparrow — the fun we had painting the trellises.

The last class meeting of the junior year when we all gathered to say goodbye to our adviser, Miss Benotti, and to greet our new class adviser, Mrs. Hadley. Do you remember the fine young classmen that left for the service the end of this year.

SENIOR YEAR

Here we are at last, seniors. Our class officers — Ronnie Heywood, president; Amy Lango, vice-president; Betty Magiera, secretary and Dave Cornfoot, treasurer.

How we became ten years younger at the Kid Party. Mary McQuesten was selected as the sweetest girl and Franny Ehrhardt as the cutest boy.

Weren't those sleepers of Ellie's funny? Where did Bill Hoisington get those shorts?

How our thoughts turned hopefully toward June and graduating.

Getting measured by Gabby for caps and gowns.

That important appointment at Bosworth's.

Friday, April 13th our class play, Sneak Date, and the "house was full."

"In ourselves our future lies."

How surprised we were to hear our prophecy at the Class Banquet.

The amusement over our class gifts.

The will we left to the juniors.

The night we received our well-earned diploma.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1945, positively in our right minds and supposedly of our own free will as we are about to leave this pleasant life to pass into the realism of the future world, do hereby proclaim our last will and testament.

The Citizens of Agawam: Our deepest gratitude for giving us the opportunity to spend the happiest years of our life in such a wonderful school.

Mr. Phelps: A two-week vacation for a fishing trip.

Mr. Dacey: Bob Hope's technique at cracking his comical jokes.

Mrs. Hadley: A few years before she has another home room like her present one.

Mrs. Nardi: A quiet, studious homeroom.

Miss Belyea: A parachute so she will make a happy landing after she jumps out of the window in an effort to escape from her nerve-wracking shorthand class.

Jasper: A pair of ear muffs to wear when he is directing traffic out in front of the school.

The Junior Class: One more brief year of happy high school days.

The Sophomore Class: A year in which to lose some of your conceit before the Junior Class writes next year's will.

The Freshman Class: Good luck and God Bless You during your next three years — you'll need it.

Thomas Aitchison: A bicycle built for two so he and his girl from Suffield won't be hindered by the gas shortage.

Eileen Allen: Amy Lango's sweet disposition.

Louise Arsenault: The peaceful corner outside of Room 24 where she and Bruno spent so many happy hours.

Robert Backstrom and Evelyn Peterson: Fern Dearnley's and Dave Cornfoot's ability to make every second count.

Charles Bailey: A chance to be the quietest boy in next year's Senior Class.

Virginia Bara: An opportunity to appear in next year's Senior Play.

Marilyn Binns: The man she loves — we never did find out who he is.

Patricia Bodurtha: John Keane's knowledge of chemistry to promote her scientific ability.

Edward Borgatti: The spot light in next year's sports.

Richard Borgatti: A quiet year of school.

Martha Breuninger: Another successful year with the girls' sports teams.

John Brusseau: A special corner in Miss Belyea's heart.

Donald Campbell: A bottle of hair lotion to preserve that wavy hair.

Phyllis Campbell: Another year with the Tri-Hi refreshment committee.

Elaine Carr: A position in the WAVES — the outfit that she loves so well.

Alfred Christopher: Something to tame down his personality.

Pauline Cote: Lillian Itzkowitz's love for roller skating.

Doris Curran and Gloria Poggi: Another year in which to enjoy each other's companionship.

Angelina DePinto: Someone to take the place of her senior friends.

Marie DesRosiers: A pair of boxing gloves so she can display her talent in that field — Isn't that right some of you Junior boys?

Henry Dickinson: A book of magician's tricks to help him along.

Paul Diduk: A little more reserve.

CLASS WILL (Continued)

- Walter Drewnowski:* The horrible truth that he isn't as big as he thinks he is.
- James Fenn:* Another year to practice up on your oratorical ability.
- Rayford Fuller:* Some of the excess pep and enthusiasm of the Senior Class.
- Helen Funtos:* A perpetual admit slip for her many absences.
- Norman Gauthier:* A pair of attachable wings so he can fly around the corridors and see what is going on.
- Maxine Gaj:* A mechanical finger with a paintbrush attached so she will always have her equipment with her.
- Robert Geoffrion:* Some girl to interest him.
- Gloria Godin:* A picture of Van Johnson to inspire her studies.
- Robert Gottsche:* Some social activities to get him out of his shell.
- Alfred Goyette:* A rocking horse so he'll feel at home in school.
- Edward Green:* A book on how to study written by Edward Gallerani.
- Walter Haggerty:* Another year to become a "man."
- Geraldine Hauff:* The Senior Girls will leave to you their vast collection of silver bracelets.
- Helen Houghton:* We leave you a method less painful than wrestling that you can use to attract the attention of boys.
- Alvord Hutchison:* Roger Hynes's mask of quietness — it will help you out of many scraps.
- Doris Isham:* Shirlee Balboni's talent in saying things with those eyes.
- Helen Jasmanicki:* A horn to blow so people will know when you are around.
- Gladys Johnson:* Another year to remain faithful to Chubby.
- Ann Keeley:* An attraction that will be big enough to tear her away from Murph's side.
- Bernard Keeley:* A spare hand that he can use when the other one gets writer's cramp from writing all those letters to Doris.
- Carol Knight:* A tall handsome boy to escort her about in her senior year.
- Kenneth Langdon:* A can opener so he can come out of his shell and display some of his hidden talent.
- Marion Lauritsen:* Another year to pound the ivories in assembly.
- Donald Leger:* A fancy skating outfit that will just startle all of his admirers at Riverside.
- Ellen Letendre:* Your brother's place in Jonsey's life.
- Dorothy Littlefield:* A chance to be a team captain in girls' sports.
- Arlene Lunden:* An extra half hour added to Activity Period so she'll have time to finish that neglected homework.
- Coralie Malley:* Training in mechanics so she can assist Bob when his smart limo-sine breaks down.
- Marjorie Manchester:* An Agawam escort for a change.
- Marion Mandirol:* A chance to get on next year's will committee so she can torment the Junior Class.
- Esther Mercadante:* Someone new to get interested in.
- Phyllis Montagna:* A special glasses shield to wear during gym.
- Joseph Nacewicz:* A partnership concerning the movie projector with George Dacey.
- Marjorie Pearsall:* A private airplane so she and that certain someone from Indian Orchard can save traveling time.

- Joseph Pedulla:* Some of Laurence Tetreault's ability to make himself heard.
John Perry: A new bucket to use when he is water boy for the football team next year.
June Pickett: A certain amount of publicity so people will know who she is.
Walter Provost: The ranking of a lieutenant in the C. A. P.
Anita Rachek: A mirror that will tell the truth.
Fred Ramah: The chance to follow in the footsteps of his many brothers and be a traditional senior Ramah.
Dolores Rivers: A chance to prove that she can come down to her own level.
Stewart Safford: A year to appreciate the girls who appreciate him.
Regina Saltzman: An anchor to keep her nose out of the clouds.
Raoul Sands: A chance to take advantage of your acting ability next year.
Eleanor Serra: A tube of Pepsodent for that nice smile.
Catherine Shaylor: Lots more refreshment committees to do such a good job on.
Douglas Shaylor: A nutcracker to bring him out of his shell.
June Smarse: Josephine DiLullo's collection of Jokes.
Muriel Soden: A soda fountain of her own.
Thomas Stapleton: A place in the Hall of Fame with your oil paintings.
Doris Sullivan: Gabby's gift of gab.
Joseph Tangocci: Title of best all around Junior Boy.
William Wells: Ed Letendre's pep.
Jeannette White: A lonely year without her two senior suitors — Berard and Fuller.
Jean Wilcoxson: A whole year to decide which one of the sophomore boys she is most interested in.
Elsie Wood: Florida Tangocci's artistic talents.
Bettye Wright: An answer for chemistry class.

CLASS PROPHECY

Time: 1960

Place: Midair

Characters: Ginny, Fern, Dave, and Roge

Scene: Dave is in his helicopter rounding a cloverleaf intersection when whom does he see on the next level but Roge Hynes flying swiftly along on Super Four Lane Airway No. 2. He is on his way to Mongolia to establish a Hynes Soup Company, 57 Varieties (Special Rates to Chinamen!). Dave, not having seen Roge in fifteen years, immediately pursues him and overtakes him. Incidentally, Dave is on his way back from Arabia where he was collecting a Harem. Roge looks in his rear vision mirror, see's Dave approaching, and pulls over to the curb. Dave parks on top of Roger's helicopter, and climbs in where the following conversation takes place:

Roge: Hi, Dave!

Dave: What do you say, Roge?

Roge: Just went to a football game yesterday. Napolitan and Casiello starred for the Agawam Redskins. They played the Chicago Bears, and beat them 50-6. Carlo Lavotti is Captain of the Chicago Bears. The game was played in the Agawam Stadium which was recently given to the town by the Meat Market Magnet, Edward Gallerani. The game was announced over all hook-ups by John Keane. There was marvelous cheering led by Dolly DiLullo and Rose DiLiddo. Doug Trevallion's Band was put through its paces by majorette Beverly Longey. Incidentally, the game was broadcast through the courtesy of the Ehrhardt Thin Blue Blade Company. Ehrhardt states: "The blades will not rust between shaves for as long a period of a year."

Dave: It must have been a beautiful ball game. I've been corresponding with Larry Tetreault who wrote and told me he had inherited a home in West Suffield. Say, Roge, what's that down the road a way? Those two men working on that helicopter look familiar.

Roge: That's Heywood and Holmes Airway Station. They do their best work on overhauling the helicopters built by Kwiatkowski and Company.

Dave: Does Bruno Maule still have his modeling school, with Lillian Itzkowitz as his No. 1 Pin Up Girl?

Roge: Yes, he does. Frank Jones has a dental laboratory. He acquires all his plastics from Stepanik's Plastic Company In. Dentist Jarl Johnson gives all his business to Frank. Mary McQuesten is Jarl's efficient nurse.

Dave: Say, wasn't that Rita Gallagher I heard as head tobacco auctioneer on the Miget and Lyers Program owned by Ding Ding Letendre?

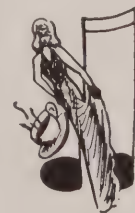

Roge: That was she, all right, and their slogan is "They Mortify." Billy Hoisington comes on right after her, telling bedtime stories to the kiddies.

Dave: I've been away a long time, Roge. What happened to some of the other girls in our class?

Roge: Well, Meredythe Barker owns the Massachusetts Book Bindery Company. They just published Eleanore Ezekiel's book "Familiar Poems and Essays."

Dave: I read about Betty Magiera's and Amy Lango's invention — a successful way to pick up mercury with tweezers. I also read that Audrey Willard has taken Miss Belyea's place at Agawam High as Head of the Commercial Department.

Roge: Dolores Borgatti and William Berard have a school teaching the mice to be quiet. Mary Hanrahan is principal, and Vally Buiso is superintendent. Jean

Demarais is President of the Washburn Insurance Company, with Thelma and Louise Harrison as her reliable secretaries.

Dave: I've heard that Jane Gravel and Vesta Porter are singing at the Metropolitan Opera in New York. Shirlee Balboni is dancing there as a special attraction. Her gowns are designed by Florida Tangocci.

Roge: Well, Dave, I'd better be leaving. I'm due in Mongolia in five minutes. Be seeing you.

Dave: Bye now.

Scene: Same day, but a few hours later. Fern is descending the steps of the Agawam Library when she meets Ginny Clarke. Incidentally Beulah Campbell is the librarian.

Ginny: Hi, Fern, what are you doing these days?

Fern: I'm on my vacation now, but I've been Van Johnson's private secretary for two years. What have you been doing, "Gin"?

Ginny: I'm Treasurer of the Turner Brother's Hat Shop. Have you heard about Eleanore Cirillo? She has part ownership in McLellan's. Mary-Jane Earle has become a very prosperous dressmaker.

Fern: Yes, I know, I bought one of her lovely dresses last week. Have you tried any of June Schwartz's recipes for double decker pies, which call for whole yokes? You can acquire these whole yokes by using Vera MacCave's egg beater which beats the eggs without breaking the yokes.

Ginny: I saw Thelma Raison's advertisement for seedless, tasteless, colorless raisins. It sounds almost impossible but anything can happen in this day and age. I hear Blanche McPhail serves very excellent meals at her restaurant on Ouija Street. She also has a wonderful entertainment program. Clayton Fuller is the star of the evening, crowds being mad about his arrangement of "Home On The Range."

Fern: Doris Govoni is Editor-in-chief of the newly published magazine "17½." "Hambone" Hamilton thinks up all the cartoons and jokes for her magazine. Nancy Martin is the Advertising Manager for this best seller.

Ginny: Jean Molinder and Doris Losito are still working for Mr. Dacey, and keeping up their marvelous standard of "mailable work." This summer I took a few roller skating lessons from Beverly Lunden and Sophie Roy. They have their classes at the Lakesurface Park.

Fern: I hear Tom Rice is still trying to figure out which came first the chicken or the egg. He thinks the chicken, but Venetia Penna, who is also conducting research on the question, says the egg.

Ginny: I just finished reading Alice Whitehead's interesting novel, "Facts About Our Navy." Norma Montagna and Shirley Rivard have opened a Tea Shoppee on Fortune Tellers Lane. Anita Lucia reads your tea leaves for only twenty-five cents!

Fern: I must drop in some time. Julia Woishnis and Jean Waniewski have positions as court reporters. They can actually take shorthand at 200 words a minute. I went to Connie Pariseau's wedding yesterday. She made a lovely bride.

Ginny: Yes, I read about it in the paper. She married a sailor, didn't she?

Fern: Yes. Did you know Barbara Peters and Lois Wills have opened a Beauty Salon in Springfield? They buy all their wave set from Donald Neill's Beauty Products Inc.

Ginny: Richie Bennett's Sea Scout Troop is the largest in the history of the country. George Chmael is his chief recruiter. Bobby Southworth is working in the lab at Westinghouse Inc. Guess that's about all the kids in the Class of '45. We're certainly well represented in all vocations.

Fern: Well, Ginny, I must be leaving. Bye now.

Ginny: Bye.

TOMORROW

Pray, scan this twisted world of ours.

It's not as once we found it.

When first we woke in infancy,

The sun shone bright around it.

The leaves did blossom forth each spring

Then fell in all their glory,

And so good deeds of countless men

Have echoed the same story.

We've tried to keep with vision clear

The teaching of the sages,

But one by one the bitter truths

Have dimmed the glowing pages.

But yet with loyalty and faith

We hearken in our sorrow,

And wait! Is that a ray of hope?

A small voice says, "Tomorrow!"

So, as we leave our studies here,

Let us not fare forth in sorrow.

Give heed! The voice is shouting now.

It's forward then! Tomorrow!

GIFTS

SHIRLEE BALBONI Indelible Lipstick
We give you this lipstick, you know what for!
So the next time you're out, he won't get sore.

MEREDYTHE BARKER Books
We know it's books you like to read,
So here's another to help you succeed.

RICHARD BENNETT Gun
You like to hunt in woods with a gun,
With this one we hope you'll have fun.

WILLIAM BERARD Neck Tie
Those flashy ties you wear are supreme,
But here's one that's right on the beam.

DOLORES BORGOTTI Whistle
Because you're so quiet and never around,
Just blow this whistle and you'll easily be found.

VALENTINA BUIO Lollipop
Because you are so short and sweet,
This lollipop will be a treat.

BEULAH CAMPBELL Pillow
We give you this pillow to rest your brain,
After twelve long years of work and strain.

GEORGE CASIELLO Baseball Bat
With this you'll reach your honored fame,
In sports you'll always be the same.

GEORGE CHMAEL Picture of Margaret O'Brien
We know that for glamor girls you're not so keen,
But this little lassie will be your dream.

ELEANORE CIRILLO Rose
Because your hair is so black and neat,
This rose, we thought, would be a treat.

VIRGINIA CLARKE A Song Book
Because it's songs you like to sing,
This book we hope joy will bring.

DAVID CORNFOOT Fern
We thought you'd be happy with this little Fern,
But watch out Dave, it might turn.

FERN DEARNLEY Mirror
To replace your old mirror which has grown old with the days,
We give to you this new one so into it you may gaze.

JEAN DEMARAIS Wave Set
This wave set we give to use on your hair,
But remember its gooey, so use it with care.

ROSE DILIDDO Cupid Doll
This cupid doll is just your height,
So small and sweet and so polite.

JOSEPHINE DILULLO Her Sailor Boy
I know the Navy is your bait,
Your sailor boy with you will rate.

MARY JANE EARLE Dress Pattern
In fashions you have made a start,
This fashion book has a quality of art.

FRANCIS ERHARDT Double Dip Ice Cream
You swish and whirl all about,
This double dip in dancing will help you out.

ELEANOR EZEKIEL
(Song) Let's Take the Long Way Home
It'll work every time, so don't be proud,
On your way home just hum it out loud.

CLAYTON FULLER Skunk
Since you lost your pet skunk you've been a lonely boy,
So we're giving you this one to fill you with joy.

RITA GALLAGHER Megaphone
We give you this megaphone so every body will know,
When you are coming; then they can
"blow."

EDWARD GALLERANI Cash Register
When you are lonely in your store,
Just open this and count the score.

DORIS GOVONI A Sandwich
We give this chicken sandwich, which is your favorite lunch,
So now you can take it and eat it in front of the bunch.

JANE GRAVEL Song Book
You sing the blues and you swing some swing,
Sing these songs and joy you'll bring.

NANCY HAMILTON Joke Book
Your jokes have been corny long enough,
With this you can learn some real good stuff.

MARY HANRAHAN Perfume
This perfume for a lady so dainty and fair,
We know you'll like it and use it with care.

LOUISE and THELMA HARRISON Tune
You've always been birds of a feather,
So here's a tune titled "Together."

RONALD HEYWOOD Watch
It's not an Elgin but it keeps good time,
Just to remind you school starts at nine.

WILLIAM HOISINGTON Money
Vermont we know you long to see,
This money we hope will pay your fee.

GIFTS (Continued)

- PAUL HOLMES Ticket to Mr. Anthony
Mr. Anthony you should see,
To find which freshman it will be.
- ROGER HYNES Car
Your car by now must be worn out,
So here is a new one you can try out.
- LILLIAN ITZKOWITZ "My Buddy"
When he's around just hum this tune,
And we'll guarantee he'll surely swoon.
- JARL JOHNSON Flash Bulb
This little flash bulb will help you out,
When taking your pictures here and about.
- FRANK JONES Moodons
The last ones you got were a little too small,
But these we hope will cover all.
- JOHN KEANE Trumpet
You play the guitar, piano, and sing like Jesse James,
Now here's a trumpet, let's see you beat Harry James.
- RONALD KWIATKOWSKI Good Luck Charm
For up in the clouds you are bound,
This good luck should be always around.
- AMELIA LANGO Leg Make Up
Seeing that silk stockings are hard to get,
With this leg make up you'll be all set.
- EDWARD LETENDRE Bells
To keep you awake when you're in class,
Just tie these to your wrists, and you'll wake up fast.
- BEVERLEY LONGEY Stilts
You've been around our knees for the past few years,
So with these new stilts you can forget your fears.
- DORIS LOSITO Picture of Bernie
This picture of Bernie will keep you in delight,
So keep away from the boys and you'll be all right.
- CARLO LOVOTTI Razor Blade
We know your beard is so rough and tough,
But we know this blade will cut that stuff.
- ANITA LUCIA Pink Bows
Those locks of yours are natural and wavy,
With them you'll be a hit with the Navy.
- BEVERLY LUNDEN Lasso
It's after the boys you always are,
So here's a lasso to catch that football star.
- VERA MACCAVE Tea Cup
Tea and crumpets at four o'clock,
Will remind you of your English stock.
- BLANCH MACPHAIL A Dime
You've carried dishes without a slip,
So please accept from us this tip.
- MARY MCQUESTEN Box of Rice
We know that you don't like rice,
So take this and fling it once or twice.
- ELIZABETH MAGIERA Coast Guard and Navy Emblem
The Coast Guard and Navy both go out to sea,
Here are two emblems, which one will it be?
- NANCY MARTIN Advanced Course in Art
In art your work is mighty fine,
Just sign your name on the dotted line.
- BRUNO MAULE Badge
On your legs there is no fat,
Cause you've turned it in to slap a Jap.
- JEAN MOLINDER Lipstick
We know lipstick is not in your line,
But here's some Rosy Future; it's really divine.
- NORMA JOY MONTAGNA Medal
The Red Cross work you've done is fine,
This medal you deserve for being so kind.
- RICHARD NAPOLITAN List of Agawam Girls
We know Southwick is a nice place,
But how about Agawam, it's still in the race.
- DONALD NEILL Pliers
You're going to be a dentist we have found it the truth,
So here's a pair of pliers to pull the first tooth.
- CONSTANCE PARISEAU Sleeping Pills
Because you always get home late,
We advise these tablets after each date.
- VENETIA PENNA Hair Lotion
Your red hair is the class flame,
Use this lotion and keep it the same.
- BARBARA PETERS Notebook for Dates
We give you this book so when you make a date,
You can put the time down and you'll never be late.
- VESTA PORTER Recipe
A dietician you'd like to be,
So we give to you this recipe.
- THELMA RAISON Hymn Book
On the piano you like to play hymns,
We're sure this book will satisfy your whims.

GIFTS (Continued)

THOMAS RICE Book of Etiquette
Your manners you should not forget,
With this book of etiquette you'll be set.

SHIRLEY RIVARD Shoe Strap
You scuffle your shoes which makes lots of noise,
Try these shoe straps and it will help your poise.

SOPHIE ROY Part in Broadway Play
You've taken part in many a play,
This one we hope Broadway will pay.

JUNE SCHWARTZ Skates
We give to you these beautiful skates,
So you'll have no trouble in making your dates.

ROBERT SOUTHWORTH Demotion Card
This is a card demoting you to the Junior Class,
So you always can be with that certain lass.

HENRY STEPANIK Paper Doll
From girls you've always been rather shy,
Let's hope this one will send you to the sky.

FLORIDA TANGOCCHI Paint Brush
These paint brushes we have given you free,
Because an artist you have proven to be.

LAURENCE TETREAULT Gun
We give you this gun, just for fun,
So you can shoot all your teachers and run.

DOUGLAS TREVALLION Pass to Rosie's Beauty Shop
Your hair has quite a curl on top,
Here's an appointment to Rosie's Shop.

JAMES and JOHN TURNER Perpetual Pass
If you ever get lonely for your old home town,
This perpetual pass won't let you down.

JEAN WANIEWSKI Polka Record
When it comes to dancing it's polkas you like,
So here is this record; it will bring you delight.

ROBERT WASHBURN Pin Up Girl
The pin ups in your car are very smart,
But here's one that will give you a quick start.

ALICE WHITEHEAD Rolling Pin
Someday we know he'll soon come back,
Use this in baking and not on his back.

AUDREY WILLARD Notebook
We know shorthand is your delight,
So keep this notebook always in sight.

LOIS WILLS Set of Hobbles
From this town you like to roam,
Try these hobbles to keep you home.

JULIA WOISHNIS Dungarees
Barn and square dances we know you like to do,
These dungarees, we thought, would suit
you.

PRO MERITO

Fifteen members of the Senior Class were presented with Pro Merito pins at the assembly held in their honor the first week in April. Later in the month a dinner party was given by Miss Smith and Miss Ward at their apartment.

Several members of the Pro Merito Society with members of the International Relations Club had charge of the assembly program given to celebrate the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington.

The state convention of Pro Merito Societies, usually held in the fall, was cancelled because of transportation difficulties due to the war.

The officers include:

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Council this year made its usual sale of school pencils, war stamps, and bonds. In addition, it sold school emblems bearing the new seal. The students of Agawam enjoyed dancing to the music of Ray Sparrow on February 16 at a dance given by the Student Council. A new system of enforcing the rules of the school was established by means of a Discipline Committee consisting of Evelyn Peterson, Mary McQuesten, John McQuesten, James Fenn, and Edward Gallerani.

PERSONALITY CLUB

The Personality Club, formed "to improve personality, and to advance social life," has enjoyed another outstanding year. Highlights of the season's program were a panel discussion by four college students, two of whom are Agawam Alumnae, and an informative talk by Mrs. Mary Carr Baker. On the social calendar was the annual Sadie Hawkins' Day Dance, given in November and the Cinderella Dance in April.

TRI-HI

Tri-Hi had a most successful year. Some of the most popular meetings have been their annual Covered Dish Supper, a Thanksgiving Day Dance, and a Fashion Show. Their meetings were plentiful and interesting which included visitors from other Tri-Hi clubs, speakers, skits, and talks. The girls have also enjoyed bowling and swimming at the West Springfield Y. M. C. A. The club's main purpose is to develop personality and character.

UPSILON CHI

Although this club has just been organized, it ranks as one of the most successful of the school. The members have presented in a school assembly an entertaining Truth and Consequence Show and to the general public a Kay Kyser Program which included its most talented members. The private meetings included outside speakers and a round table discussion with men teachers of the faculty.

The officers of the club are as follows:

President DAVID CORNFOOT
Vice-President ROGER HYNES
Secretary EDWARD GALLERANI
Treasurer ROBERT BACKSTROM

MASQUE

The Agawam Masque, under the direction of Mrs. Nardi, has had an interesting program. It gave the school two assemblies: a Columbus Day radio play, and Light Competition, a Christmas Play. The club also sponsored a spring dance and sold football programs in addition to its regular meetings which included skits, talks on costumes, acting, scenery, etc.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club, under the direction of Mr. Langlois, has had a very successful year.

Their regular meetings include a series of talks and movies in which the newer members have learned the arts of printing and developing pictures.

The officers of the club are as follows:

President	JOHN KEANE
Vice-President	ELIZABETH MAGIERA
Secretary	AMELIA LANGO
Treasurer	JARL JOHNSON

Senior Members — Mary-Jane Earle, Rita Gallagher, Louise Harrison, Thelma Harrison, Jarl Johnson, John Keane, Amelia Lango, Elizabeth Magiera, Douglas Trevallion.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The program for 1944-1945 included informal discussions of current topics by club members and meetings with guest speakers. Among these speakers were young men from Iran who were studying at American International College, a Greek student who had spent sometime in a German concentration camp, and a veteran from General Patton's army.

Social events of the club included a fall picnic for old members, a Christmas meeting, and a closing party.

The club co-operated with the Pro Merito Society in presenting a Washington-Lincoln assembly.

OFFICERS

President	WALTER HAGGERTY
Secretary	JEANETTE HARPIN
Treasurer	CHARLES BAILEY

Senior Members — Nancy Martin, Alice Whitehead, Thelma Harrison, Louise Harrison.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Under the direction of Miss Hastings, the Girls' Sports Program has been most successful. This eventful year started out with the choosing of service captains: Army, Florida Tangocci; Navy, Virginia Clarke; and Marines, Doris Govoni. In the early fall, a party was given to which all the sports members were invited. At that time they were notified as to which team they belonged. The girls have had stiff competition in all the sports, both on the service and class teams. Their reward was the well-earned letter "A." The girls that were on the winning class team also received their numerals.

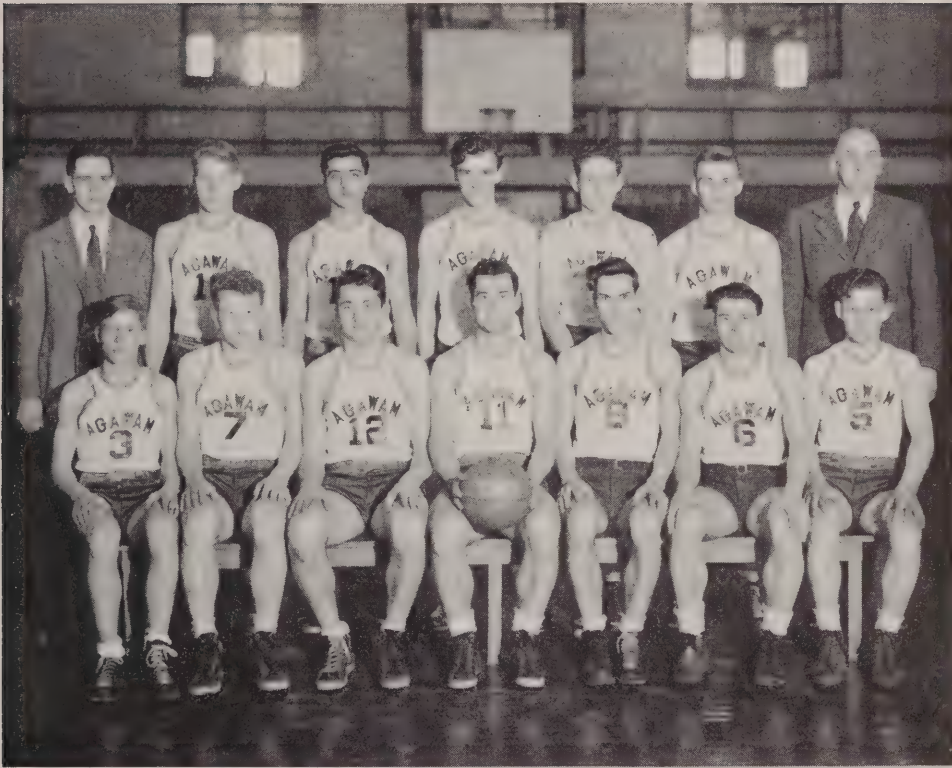

Senior Members — Meredythe Barker, Virginia Clarke, Fern Dearnley, Rose DiLiddo, Josephine DiLullo, Eleanore Ezekiel, Rita Gallagher, Doris Govoni, Jane Gravel, Nancy Hamilton, Louise Harrison, Thelma Harrison, Amelia Lango, Elizabeth Magiera, Mary McQuesten, Norma Montagna, Venetia Penna, Thelma Raison, Florida Tangocci, Jean Waniewski, Alice Whitehead, Julia Woishnis.

FOOTBALL TEAM

BASKETBALL TEAM

BOYS' SPORTS

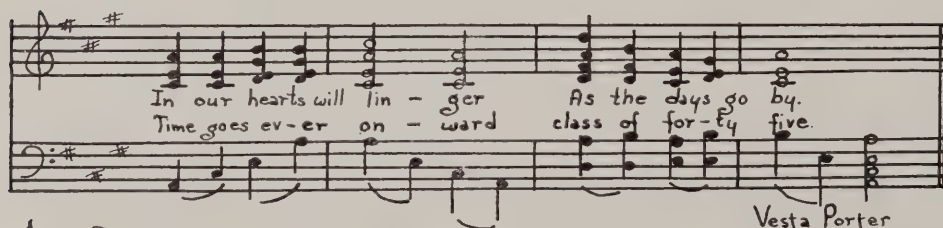

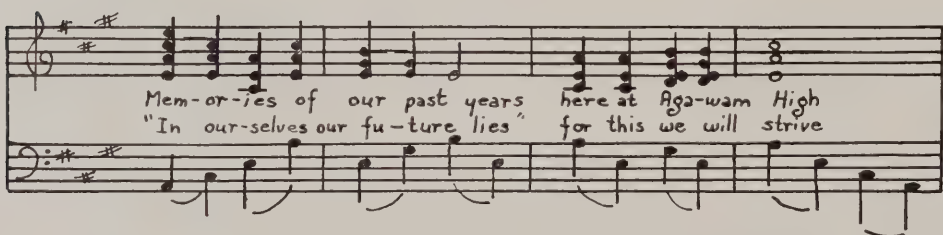

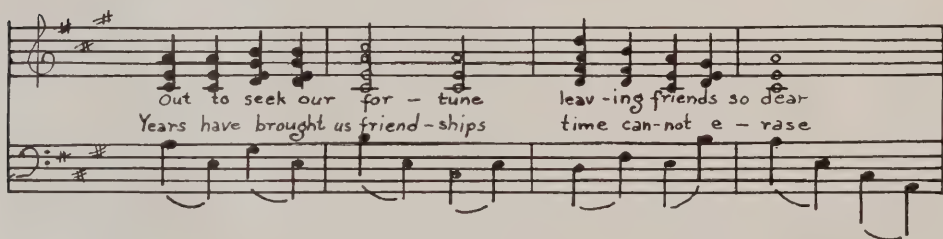

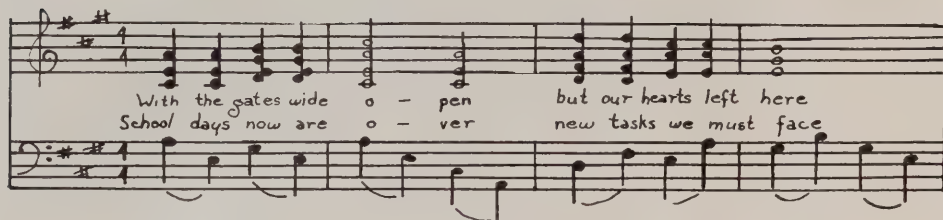

The football team had a very successful season. Winning six out of seven games, they were contenders for the Western Mass. Championship. Cornfoot was acting captain. Carlo Lovotti was named All-Western Mass. Halfback. Bernard Keely, end, and Tom Aitchison, guard, made All-Western Mass. Football team. Dave Cornfoot, halfback and Stu Stafford, quarterback, made the Pro Merito list in football. C. Lovotti, D. Cornfoot, R. Napolitan, and G. Casiello were the senior members on the team.

The basketball team made an effective showing on the gym floors of the Valley Wheel Teams. In our season's play, we won eleven games and lost only four. We lost, with regret, both games with West Springfield who captured the League Championship with Agawam in close second place. The senior members of the Squad were Carlo Lovotti and Bruno Maule. Lovotti acted as captain.

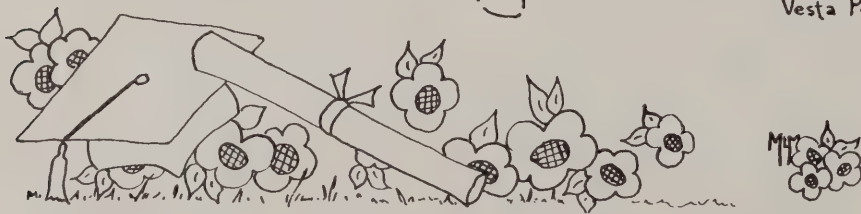

Baseball was resumed for the first time in several years and was coached by Mr. John Schinelli.

The senior class contributed the following outstanding performers in track: Lovotti in the dashes and the discus, Cornfoot in the dashes, Casiello in the quarter-mile event, and Napolitan in the javelin and hurdles.
